Tree Planting

Naess Cares' third activity for 2012 was the Tree Planting in the mountainous part of Montalban, Rizal, participated by NSPI officers, staff, seafarers and volunteer cadets.

To help save nature that could, in turn, protect us from the dangers of floods and soil erosion, more than 200 narra and mahogany trees were planted.

Relief for Bulacan Flood Victims

Last 16 August 2012, Naess Cares Representatives went to The Shrine of Our Lady of Loreto Parish to give donations for the flood victims of Hagonoy, Bulacan brought about by the intense rains carried by the southwest monsoon.

The Relief goods includes: canned goods, breads and biscuits, sacks of rice and some clothes shared by NSPI and its Officers and Staff.

Naess Cares team met with Msgr. Emmanuel Sunga, who will bring and distribute the goods in Bulacan.

Msgr. Sunga told Naess Cares how the flood has affected many parts of Bulacan as he, himself is from Bulacan and was stranded there for days. Roads were impassable that the church will have to borrow a truck in order for them to deliver the goods to the flood victims.

Naess Cares and NSPI would like to thank everyone who have generously shared to aide our unfortunate brothers and sisters.

The material things we shared can only go so far but no one knows how deep an impact it will make to them, having the thought that they are being remembered and cared for.

Together, we can make a difference!

The Mountain Story

"A son and his father were walking on the mountains.
Suddenly, his son falls, hurts himself and screams: "AAAhhhhhhhhhhh!!!"
To his surprise, he hears the voice repeating, somewhere in the mountain: "AAAhhhhhhhhhhh!!!"
Curious, he yells: "Who are you?"
He receives the answer: "Who are you?"
And then he screams to the mountain: "I admire you!"
The voice answers: "I admire you!"
Angered at the response, he screams: "Coward!"
He receives the answer: "Coward!"
He looks to his father and asks: "What's going on?"
The father smiles and says: "My son, pay attention."
Again the man screams: "You are a champion!"
The voice answers: "You are a champion!"
The boy is surprised, but does not understand.
Then the father explains: "People call this ECHO, but really this is LIFE.
It gives you back everything you say or do.
Our life is simply a reflection of our actions.
If you want more love in the world, create more love in your heart.
If you want more competence in your team, improve your competence.
This relationship applies to everything, in all aspects of life;
Life will give you back everything you have given to it."

YOUR LIFE IS NOT A COINCIDENCE. IT'S A REFLECTION OF YOU!"
